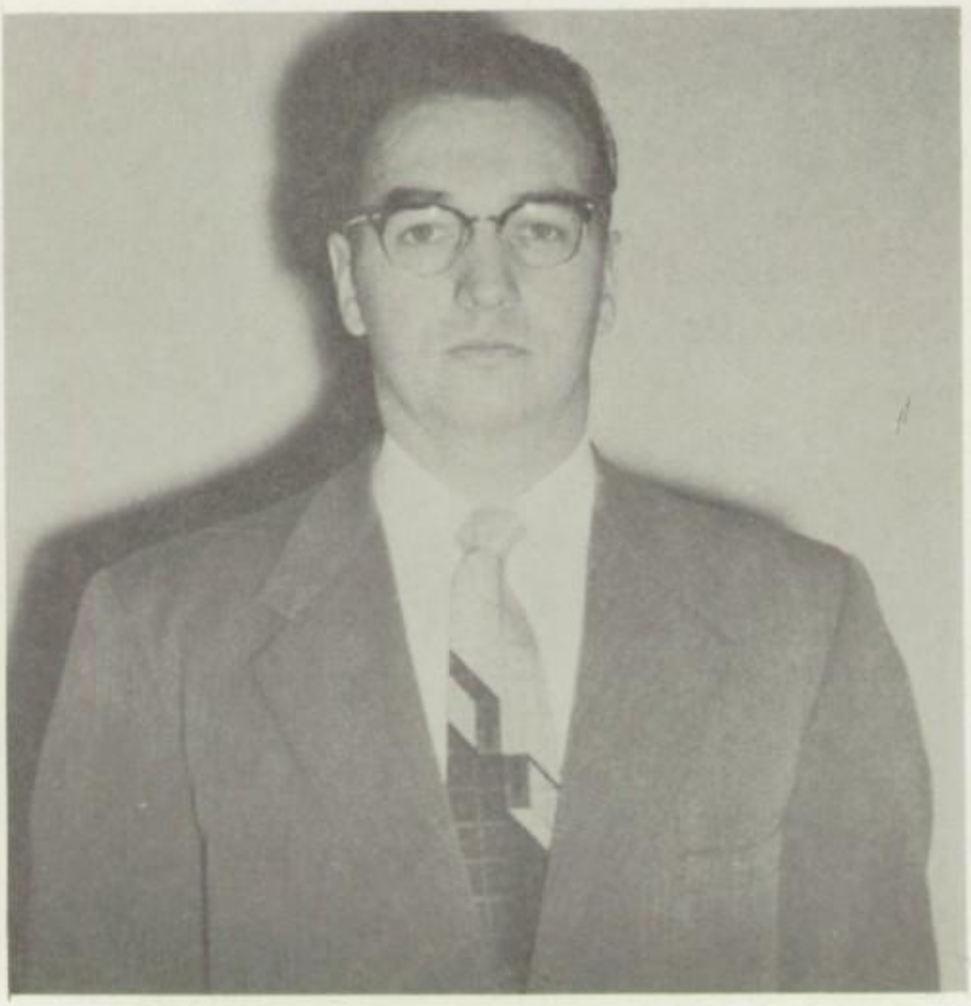
FLANDREAU HIGH SCHOOL

FLANDREAU, SOUTH DAKOTA

Dedication



This year we are dedicating our book to a man who has for the last 15 years, with time off to serve Uncle Sam, served the citizens of Flandreau and the surrounding area in a manner that no financial yardstick can measure. It is at best a difficult task to measure the contribution of any one person to the community in which he lives and works. In the case of Supt. Tracy this task becomes almost impossible. Who can measure the gain acquired by the hundreds and hundreds of students that Mr. Tracy has served? Yet there is no question in the minds of people who have worked or studied under Mr. Tracy that his service was not helpful to the greatest possible extent.

We, the Annual Staff of 1956, hereby dedicate our 1956 Flyer to Mr. Neal Tracy, Superintendent of Schools, Flandreau, S. Dak.

SENIORS

Oh! Those seniors! What a mark they have left on old F.H.S. The teachers have struggled with them for four years and at times some of the seniors have wondered what was going on. Really, they aren't so bad as all that. Some of the projects they have worked on have not come out so well as they might have but maybe if they had another year or so to try they would make the grade. To the graduating class of 1956 we wish the best of luck and hope they all succeed in their chosen vocations.

Traditionally, and this year is no exception, the junior class is the money-making class. Using every legal (ahem) means to make money, selling magazines and refreshments at games and after school, they were able to put on the banquet and prom. During the year the hard working adviser, Mr. Sullivan, hoped that every thing would come out even in the end (money wise, that is). The class as a whole deserves a lot of credit not only for lasting the year through but because they showed the real school spirit.

STUDENT COUNCIL

J. C. Wade, Student President, chats with Mr. Hass.

The learned looks you observe on the faces of this group have been imposed by hours of concentrated study on the problems that confront the students of F.H.S. This group meets periodically to mull over and solve the problems dealing with various student affairs. Lead by a very able student prexy, J. C. Wade and from time to time given wise counsel by their advisor, Mr. Hass; this group has attempted to serve you to the greatest extent possible.

F.F.A.

These smiling faces are those of the sod-busters of FHS. The Future Farmers had time to take it easy, for they put on the Ag Barn Dance, Parent-son Mixer with help from the Chamber of Commerce and won first place in the Peavey State Grain Sanitation Contest for the second consecutive year. With the guidance of the officers and their adviser, Mr. Sylvan Vigness, they have made a definite impression on the community. They sent a delegation to Kansas City for the 27th annual convention and many of the boys have been in contests throughout the state and altogether they have made a very good impression.

The boys on this page put Flandreau back on the map as far as the grid-iron is concerned. After dropping their first game to Madison by a score of 20-7, they came back and won seven straight. Mr. Cotton did a terrific job of coaching to these boys and Mr. Johnson deserves a lot of credit for shaping his boys into a very effective defensive and offensive line.

The team was fortunate in having very good team speed and this together with great spirit and determination did much toward insuring the season's success.

Here we have the hard-court wizards of F.H.S. Those boys that don the short pants and rubber soled shoes of their trade and then go out in an effort to tack up another victory for the Purple and Gold. This years crew compiled an 11 won, 11 lost record on the season. Many of the defeats suffered by this fighting group were of the one or two point variety. This years losses off the varsity include high scoring Jim McAtee, playmaking Denny Brook, outside shooter Ron Jewett, and hard driving Gary Chamley. Among top reserves lost through graduation are Dave Acheson, Ron Thoreson, Jim Redman, J. C. Wade, Don Jackson, and John Smallfield.

BAND

Nancy Hales

Between 8:15 and 8:45 the west stairs are cleared for the strugglers of the "A" Band. These are the notorious noise-makers who work in the attic of F.H.S.

Directing this band is no easy task for Mr. Samp — look who he has to work with — no wonder he's minus some hair.

The schedule for the band has included three concerts, five marching trips, a concert tour, and many appearances of individual and small groups at community functions.

F.H.S. can afford to boast of the fine record established by its "horn-tooters." This year, as in the past, Mr. Samp is to be congratulated heartily for a job well done.

Special Woodwinds: Marlys Eng, Margaret Dawson, Norene Johnson, Barbara Nelson.

Clarinets: Janet Jewett, Darlys Pasch, Muriel Duncan, Kay Keck, Dottie Schult, Kathy Collins.

Have you ever been around the high school about 10:00 in the morning to listen to the song birds of Flandreau High School polishing up on their choral numbers? This very fine group is under the capable direction of Mr. Kenneth Rewalt. Eight of these people represented the chorus at All-State Chorus, which was held at Aberdeen, South Dakota last November. This is an organization Flandreau High can well be proud of. Hats off to the chorus!

FACULTY

George Mainz

Here they are, the F.H.S. faculty. The rugged but right people that direct our efforts that accomplishments. We sometimes hesitate to give them credit but in the long run most of us realize that they have given us a lot more than we can repay.

We thank them and hope for their sake that the classes to come will see and appreciate the efforts. I'm sure we did.

1. Rudella, getting ready to dig off.
2. Linda, when did that happen?
3. Come on Rudie, hang on.
4. Which will be Miss Dogpatch?
5. Don't sit down too hard, Leanne.
6. Bonzo, modeling anklets?
7. Why so happy?
8. Peterson, what happened to the barn?
9. What a sweet young thing - - - - - - then.
10. What a pose.
11. Crowded?
12. Don't pull it out, Carol, you'll need it.
13. Hmmm—Wonder who took the picture.
14. Kent, how becoming!
15. Wally Cox II (Mr. Peepers).
16. Jewett won't have any fingernails left.
17. Oh, I've got a headache!

BOARD OF EDUCATION

This group of adults has the responsibility of giving the Students of F.H.S. a worthwhile education. Their principal job is the disbursement of money and the making of policy. A guiding influence on the educational program of any community, this group rarely receives the credit due it. For this reason, we of the Flyer staff wish to thank these people for a job well done.

ADMINISTRATION

Supt. Neal Tracy, Secretary Gladys English, Principal William Hass.

JOURNALISM

Notice the scholarly expressions on the faces of the individuals in the picture above. This conscientious group is responsible for seeing that the school paper rolls from the presses each week. Under the watchful eye of Mrs. Rice and with able help from editors, Frank Hansen and Ron Thoreson, the Hi-Flier deadline is met each Friday.

HOMECOMING

Date: October 21, 1955
Place: Spafford Auditorium
Time: 8:00 P. M.

A hush that precedes any momentous event fell over the capacity crowd that jammed Spafford Auditorium to witness the coronation of the 1955 Homecoming King and Queen of F.H.S. In a few moments all would know the answer to that question which had been in the minds of many people for the past week. A few endless moments later Jim McAtee and Leanne Johnson were announced as King and Queen and the place rocked with the applause that followed.

A closeup of the newly-crowned king and queen. Their faces indicate their joy.

LIBRARIANS

The bookfinders-those girls that are constantly checking books in and out or frantically searching for anything that a student might want — pertaining to books. The librarians elect officers at the beginning of each year, electing a president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Marble, our competent advisor, helps keep us going by thinking up new tasks and activities to keep us busy.

FUTURE NURSES

This group consists of those young ladies who plan to make nursing a career. Attending regular meetings enable these girls to become acquainted with certain procedures and techniques used by nurses, as well as learning what sort of preparation is necessary to become a registered nurse.

1. Hear no evil, see no evil, speak no evil.

22. More Miss Dogpatch candidates.
23. & 24. Gene and Dene? or Dene and Gene?

LITTLE ORPHEUM

Pictured here are a few of the scenes from this year's version of Little Orpheum, a tradition that would be the envy of many other schools. This year's production rivaled those of past years in originality and humor.

Reading down the left hand column we have Jerome Neal, guitarist extraordinary; F.F.A.'s bottle band; a trio of Juniors doing a doll dance; the Senior's Mr. Touchdown; the Junior's Kent Miller, as Ed Sullivan. Above we have the Music Dept.'s presentation of America's dance traditions, followed by F.H.S.'s answer to Jerry Lewis, Darrel Taylor.

Little Orpheum, like so many things in this wonderful country of ours, appears to be getting better as the years go by. Here's hoping that the future brings us even bigger and better Little Orpheum productions.
